LILLIE DUST

If I could but touch your hand again,
It would bring us both health again.
But you will be gone,
For you are alone.

The days are darkening and dying
At hours of madding and shattering.
I sleep but to dream of you—
And the voice—

That are not memory—
I dream of the echo
of your voice, impelling—
Personality and charm—

Laughter still sweeten your room—
Your silent harps—

And lassoes twine up—
The snakes tormenting motion

Of all things throbbing with life—
Grief abounding—

They shall never see you again—
You are mine—

And I am left behind.

To miss you—
To want you—
To need you—
Your are gone—

And I shall never touch your hand again.

MARY S. BAKER.

Today's Events.

Moonlight street dance and exercises given as benefit by women of Alpha society, Sacred Heart church.

Black Friars will be hosts this evening at swimming party at Sunbeam Plunge.

Mrs. J. W. Marshall's bridgeshower for Miss Mayme Fairbanks.

Picnic and Dance.

Members of the Kappa club will enjoy picnic at Sand Springs on Wednesday evening and will come in the city at evening time for dancing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Welch.

Wedding Breakfast. The Widows-Ashton bridal party and out-of-town guests were entertained with a beautiful wedding breakfast Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin on South Osageo avenue. Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Lloyd Baker being hostesses. The wedding of Miss Blanch Ashton and Mr. Arthur Manley Widows of Pawhuska was an event of much interest to a large circle of friends on Saturday, the bride and groom leaving during the afternoon for San Diego, Calif., where they will remain until fall. Those who enjoyed the lovely affair mentioned were Mrs. W. W. Chapman and two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dickey of Muskogee, Mrs. J. N. Wyse of Pawhuska and Mrs. Widows, the latter being the mother of the groom. The bride is one of the most popular young women, resigning her position with the Tidal Oil company to be married. She served during the world war as secretary and treasurer of the Balkan commission of the Red Cross and has served as secretary of the Tulsa Town club.

Pre-Nuptial Affairs. Miss Mayme Fairbanks whose engagement to Mr. Leo Helmstetter has been announced, the wedding to take place at an early date, is being given quite a number of attractive parties this week. Mrs. J. W. Marshall is entertaining this afternoon with a bridge and miscellaneous shower. On Wednesday, Mrs. Larne Baker will tender this bride-to-be a kitchen shower. On Thursday, Miss Fairbanks will share honors with Miss Mayme Kilian another midsummer bride who is to wed Charles Edward Marlin at a luncheon given by Mrs. H. F. Rothman.

For Miss Clark.

Mrs. Minnette Hedges entertained a company of ladies at dinner in her beautiful suburban home west of Tulsa recently. The dinner was to celebrate the return of the girl who had soon to make her home in Chelsea. Those present beside the honor guest were Dr. Stella Hollis, Mrs. Clifford J. Harry, Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mrs. Theresa Boyles, Miss Carolyn Baker, Rena Fowl, Maine Hatch, Margaret Price and Helen Flitchie of Sulphur.

Week-end Party.

Misses Jeannette Ross, Edith Faquin, Betty Comstock, Laura Nease of Tennessee, Memphis Edward Thompson, Mike Gillmer, Kenneth Little, George Berry and James Watson, charmed by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wilson, ministered to Noel, Mo., for the weekend.

Personal Mention.

Misses Margaret Johnson and Hazel Nelson left Saturday for Oklahoma streams where they will spend the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank C. Reisinger and children are at home again after a delightful sojourn at Noel, Mo.

Major and Mrs. Charles E. Hoppe are in the clouds for a sun-

Tan, Red or Freckled.

Skin Is Easily Shed

To free your summer-tanned skin of its mahogany freckles, blushing or tan, the best thing to do is to free yourself of the skin itself. This is easily accomplished when you have at your disposal a soap which is good for the skin and which washes off easily. At eight as you use cold cream, washing it off in the morning immediately the oil-making surface skin begins to come off in fine, powder-like particles, resulting in the gentle exfoliation of the skin. The soap is good for the skin and the soap which is good for the skin now in evidence presents a smooth, soft, clean skin, leaving no greasy residue, unlike in other soaps.
